The Sea King lived with six sea-princesses. His wife died many years ago. Their grandmother, a very wise woman, took care of<sup>10</sup> them all.

All day, the beautiful princesses swam together. They also played with the fish in the ocean. The fish in the ocean were like the birds in the sky.

Each sea-princess was very special. But the youngest<sup>1</sup> was the prettiest<sup>2</sup>. Her skin was so white and clear, and her long hair flew<sup>3</sup> smoothly<sup>4</sup> in the sea. She seemed like<sup>5</sup> other girls on land. But she had a tail<sup>6</sup> like a fish.

Every day the little mermaid<sup>7</sup> liked to stay<sup>8</sup> in her garden, and grew<sup>9</sup> red flowers. She never went out of<sup>10</sup> the sea.

"Really? The flowers have perfume<sup>2</sup>? The fish in the trees can sing?" she asked. She didn't know about birds.

"I want to<sup>3</sup> see the people, the fish, and the flowers," she said.

"You can go when you are fifteen," her grandmother said.

"Fifteen!" thought the mermaid. "I am only<sup>4</sup> nine now. It is such<sup>5</sup> a long time to wait."

The little mermaid swam to her oldest sister. "Sister!" she said. "You're going to<sup>6</sup> be fifteen next year. Tell me all about the land above."

At last<sup>1</sup>, it was her oldest sister's birthday. "It was wonderful," she said.

"I saw so many things. I lay<sup>2</sup> on a beach in the moonlight<sup>3</sup>. I saw a town and some people. It was so exciting.<sup>4</sup>" The little mermaid listened carefully<sup>5</sup>.
